Order of Worship
Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude
Greeting

Call to Worship

Lord, come into our hearts today.

Heal us from all our pain.

Lord, come into our lives today.

Bring us hope and peace.

Come! Let us worship God who brings hope and peace!

Opening Prayer

Let us pray...

Healing and Healer God, call us to rise in faith this day. Strengthen us to walk into the light of your healing and your hope. Inspire us to trust your promises, and celebrate the power of your steadfast love. In the healing name of Christ, we pray. AMEN.

Opening Hymn

Spirit Song

UMH 347

O let the Son of God enfold you with his Spirit and his love.

Let him fill your heart
and satisfy your soul.

O let him have the things that hold you,
and his Spirit like a dove
will descend upon our life
and make you whole.

Jesus, O Jesus, come and fill your lambs.
Jesus, O Jesus, come and fill your lambs.

O come and sing this song with gladness
as your hearts are filled with joy.
Lift your hands in sweet surrender
to his name.

O give him all your tears and sadness;
give him all your years of pain,
and you'll enter into life
in Jesus' name.

Jesus, O Jesus, come and fill your lambs.
Jesus, O Jesus, come and fill your lambs.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. AMEN.

His Name Is Wonderful

Scripture Reading

Mark 5:21-43 NRSV

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

This is the Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

Sermon

"The Healing Power of Jesus"

Guest Preacher, Gail Blythe
Designated Lay Speaker

All I need is you, Jesus, all I need is you.
 You are the source of all I need.
 All I need is you.
 All I want is you, Jesus, all I want is you.
 You are the source of all I need.
 All I want is you.
 My only hope is you, Lord, my only hope is you.
 You are the source of all I need.
 My only hope is you.

NOTE: Since next Saturday is July 4th, neither the Food Pantry nor the Clothes Closet will be open. Even though the pageantry and the fireworks will be few, let's take time to appreciate and be grateful for God's many blessings, His grace and mercy, and to remember to thank God for it all, including our freedom. "... with liberty and justice for all ... God shed His grace on thee ... "

Please celebrate responsibly.

The following weekend, Saturday, July 11th, BOTH the Food Pantry and the Clothes Closet will be open. The clothes racks will be moved outside, and the Food Pantry will continue to operate as it has since April - handling clients without person-to-person interaction.
