

Daddy Prayer

Friends, this has been a very disheartening day. What we have seen on the public airways today is not what should be happening in this country called the United States of America.

I have prayed a number of prayers today, just to come to some sense of peace. But I have still been unsettled. So I have come at it from a different direction. Since we are the children of God, I decided to come to this prayer this evening after seeing more chaos take place at our Capitol.

So hear this prayer I have come up with as a child-type prayer that is helping me a little bit, and I hope may help you, as well.

Daddy! Daddy! Where are you, Daddy?

The house is shaking, there's a great storm brewing outside.

Hurry to the house, Daddy, for the walls are cracking and there's darkness all around.

Daddy, we need you, even though we have wandered away from your presence; we need you, Daddy.

Daddy, you have always remained true to your word. You told us you would not leave us alone.

Daddy, I'm scared, please come to the house. Some of us have forgotten we are all your children. Each and every one of us.

Daddy, it seems that love and hope have been blown away in the storm. But you can calm the storms of life.

So, Daddy as I stand in the midst, I remember what our big brother (Christ) said, "I am with you always, even until the end of time."

Amen.

Freddie Orr, 01/06/2021